

Texas NORML Policy 011: Political Candidates and Parties Position

Effective Date: 6/2020

Approval Date:6/2020

Updated: 9/14/21

This is Texas NORML's policy regarding political candidates.

- Texas NORML does not endorse a particular political party.
- Texas NORML does not endorse political candidates.
- Texas NORML does not campaign on behalf of candidates.
- Texas NORML does not raise money on behalf of political candidates.
- Texas NORML informs our members and supporters about the voting records, policy ideas, quotes and opinions of political candidates on the subject of reforming marijuana law.
- Texas NORML informs our members and supporters about the planks of each political party regarding reforming marijuana law.
- Texas NORML sponsors candidate forums and invites political candidates from all political parties to speak to our members and supporters about their views on reforming marijuana law.
- Texas NORML publishes a voter guide to inform our members and supporters about the voting record and policy positions of political candidates regarding reforming marijuana law.
- Texas NORML members and board members are free to support the political party of their choice, endorse political candidates, campaign on behalf of political candidates, donate and raise money for political candidates and vote as they see fit.
- Texas NORML encourages all of our members and supporters to participate in the political process and educate themselves about all aspects of marijuana law at the state and federal level.